The Secret (Rhonda Byrne)

Almost everyone has heard the phrase "It's all in the Mind". But how many have ever tried to understand its importance & implication. This book, "The Secret" helps us to know the power of our minds, which if identified & unleashed properly, can create waves of positive changes in our life. The law described in the book, which is called, "The Law of attraction" is the most powerful law in the universe, states that people experience the logical manifestation of their predominant thoughts, feelings & words. It is actually "Using our mind and harnessing its powers to succeed in life". It actually emphasizes the point that what we imagine in our mind becomes real. The author has used statements & theories by many eminent personalities to illustrate and fortify the concept, making it informative and interesting to read. The secret helps us to create new way of thinking so that we can attract happiness and the life we've always dreamed of.

Face to face

Prashaman: At first congratulations Mansi for becoming "Miss B.J Beats". So how do you feel about it?

Mansi: Pleasantly shocked actually but it feels good when you get something unexpected, happiness is doubled. Prashaman: So what do you think about the competition you participated in? Was it a tummy turner or a bit easier? Mansi: You can't say a tummy turner but mild butterflies lie in the stomach. Being on stage always is bit innerving even after all these years.

Prashaman: Would you like to comment on Judges we had?

Mansi: Judges we had were really well suited. A person can be assessed by psychologist who was one of our judges Dr. Pooja and other was our all-rounder sir, Dr. Kamal Sharma, who was really enthusiastic about this competition.

Prashaman: What are your opinions about BJ beats?

Mansi: As I said it was a result of efforts and vision of many students. Really hats off to the organizers who never gave up and stormed through every obstacles. So really a standing ovation to them having it successfully done is big positive. And hope that it goes on to become country's most awaited fest.

Prashaman: What are your hobbies?

Mansi: Writing, Cooking up new experiments, Cycling, Surfing and Dozing off, :)

Prashaman: What is the goal of your life?

Mansi: To do well in any field I be in to the best of my abilities.

Prashaman: Are you involved in any socio-welfare activities?

Mansi: I have joined NSS which has really helped me to grow, I enjoy it as it is a great learning.

Prashaman: Can we have message of "Miss BJ beats" for BJites?

Mansi: Message was there in BJ beats itself. The unity, cooperation and dedication that we showed for a month, that's the strength of BJites. Hope that it flows in to every aspect of our life as it is the key to success.

Aho...! Ascharyam

- Romans built many good roads radiating from Rome to all part of the country. As the roman empire stretched, highways were lengthened. People were able to reach any Roman province easily and quickly. So came the phrase "ALL ROADS LEAD TO ROME"!
- English language contains 4,00,000 technical terms(million in general). Despite this, it is doubtful if any individual uses more than 60,000 words.

જો કેટલું ભણવાનું ?

Like Newton's three laws, there are three questions which are universal among medical students (from 1st year to final year superspecialty:)

Question 1: Is it enough to read only IMP(ticked)

dated all the time: A high level of confidence while practicing: For all this reading is must so

What is the solution for boring reading? Answer lies in changing the question:

Now, let us change the question હવે કેવી રીતે ભણવાનું?
